

In the Heart of the Dolomites

Combined off-piste and ski touring instructional week

Our small but fine mountain hotel is situated high above Cortina d'Ampezzo at an altitude of 2,230 m in the centre of the fantastic scenery of the Dolomites. If you are looking for a quiet and peaceful atmosphere to conclude the day and enjoyable comfort at the same time, you'll find it here.

The ski touring route described below is a selection of the many possible routes in the vast Dolomites ski area. The detailed planning of the program is the guide's responsibility.

Accommodation: Mountain inn at Passo Giau (2,136 m) in great panoramic surroundings. Double rooms and a limited number of single rooms with private facilities, fine cuisine with Italian and Ampezzan specialities, cosy rooms.

Itinerary (subject to change without prior notice)

Day 1: Welcome

On arrival, your guide will welcome you at the hotel on the Passo Giau and explain the proposed itinerary. Your equipment will be checked, and, if necessary, supplementary equipment distributed. Dinner will make an excellent opportunity to get to know the rest of the group.

Day 2: Off-piste training

Warm up and off-piste training besides the Cinque Torri ski area and on the Passo Falzarego, including some short climbs.

Day 3: Passo Giau - Monte Pore

Easy tour from the hotel to the Monte Pore (2,405 m). Descent on the northern face to Buchenstein. Climbing time 2-3 h.

Day 4: Cortina d'Ampezzo

Well prepared tracks and a short transfer bring us to the ski areas of Cortina. Off-piste descents that are accessible by skilift and short climbs.

Day 5: Monte Formin

Start off with a descent to the pass road (1,750 m). Climb to the peak of Monte Formin (2,657 m) where you will be presented a great panoramic view of the Dolomites. Descent on the northern face. Climbing time 3-4 h.

Day 6: Marmolada

Transfer to Malga Ciapèla (1,450 m), ca. 45 min. You will reach the Marmolada (3,320 m) by funicular. Off-piste descents down the Marmolada Glacier to Lake Fedaia.

Day 7: Cristallocharte

One of the most beautiful ski tours in the Dolomites: From the Passo Tre Croci (1,880 m), we climb to the Cristallocharte (2,180 m) with its fantastic rock scenery. 1,300 v.m. descent on the northern face. Transfer back to the Passo Giau. In the evening, we celebrate the last day of this unforgettable week.

Day 8: Departure

Our ski touring week ends after breakfast.
